

At the top of the hill lies a secret that needs to be unraveled; the Myconian Naia hotel defines a whole new standard for the genuine Boutique hotel experience. Wonderfully secluded on its own private area with a stunning view over the sea, it is a story unfolding its chapters day by day. Unique and unattainable, it captures both the eye and the heart of each and every guest. Inspired by the ancient Mycenaean housing, Naia's architecture is a unique mélange of contrasting elements and shapes, rare artworks and prestigious designers' creations, from all around the world.

Suites

With an enviable spot on the Myconian hill, this fusion-chic, peaceful retreat offers 18 luxury suites, each for an unforgettable stay with an exemplary service. Spacious and refined, all 18 are well-distinguished by its array of rich fabrics, exceptional craftsmanship and fine materials in custom furnishings as well as art objects and designers' items. The four poster beds designed exclusively for the Myconian Naia are the centerpieces of intimacy and comfort combined with the exhilaration of enjoying the outstanding view. High-tech amenities and the utterly spoiling atmosphere on the balconies over the Aegean blue are all facts of this life changing experience.

A fine and calmingly luxurious Naia Suite with its own personality. Minimalist aesthetic yet blissfully elegant, exquisite fabrics and carefully selected materials along with high-tech amenities and designers' objects. All of the above with a private balcony flying high over the Myconian windmills during the famous "magic hour" of the Cycladic horizon.

Maintaining the look and feel of an elegant private house, tranquility and relaxation simply flourish in the Naia Suite with Private Pool. Minimalist aesthetic with a super stylish touch, exquisite fabrics and carefully selected materials along with high-tech amenities as the 43"TV lift and designers' objects. Business or pleasure can be all worked out by the delightful private pool or under the shade in one of the most dashing chaise lounges. The sea view will always be breathtaking.

Dining

There is nothing greater than a lavish à la carte breakfast at Naros Restaurant designed and prepared to impress each and every guest and truly fit all kind of wishes: organic eggs, freshly baked bread, a variety of cakes and sweets, homemade marmalades, pure honey, healthy cereals, nuts and edible seeds, dried fruits, superfoods, an impressive variety of fresh fruits and vegetables, juices, smoothies along light suggestions and gluten free products, are just a tiny hint of what you are about to experience during your stay.

It is not just gourmets who are well catered at Naros fine dining Restaurant; fusion taste lovers will be inspired by the exquisite matching of ideas and techniques in a blend of fine Mediterranean cuisine with delightful international influence. Last but not least, the touch of molecular techniques adds this fine gastronomic experience a unique character under the one and only Myconian sky.

George's Bar is an ideal location for a relaxing drink in gorgeous surroundings amongst friends with comfy chairs as well as a bar that allows you to join the fun. Ask the friendly yet experienced bartender for a tasty specialty cocktail or get inspired by the wine selection and numerous rarities. A perfect atmosphere will make things happen easily, all day and night, with long drinks, cool refreshments and shareable small plates. Don't miss out the magic hour at George's bar. As the sun fades away you'll feel like sailing over the horizon and part of it might be true.

All of the ingredients are either produced in the private farm or locally and exclusively for us, by well-trusted professionals.

Spa & Wellness

Thanks to a paradise location and the sense of well-living that pervades the whole island, it's easy to feel refreshed just by walking into the lobby of the Satori Thalasso Spa. Close your eyes, let yourself go, boost circulation, relax the nervous system and shake off long – but not gone – fatigue. Enjoy a traditional massage or experience the very latest therapies, according to your needs, wrapped up with exceptional service, preformed only by experts on the field. It all comes with the added benefit of five therapeutic pools and an invigorating sauna, to balance body, mind and soul.

The Spa features St Barth spa treatments and Elemis spa beauty products.
