

Latest News and Offers from the Lush Experiences Collection

PARISTORY - Hotel Grand Powers and Grand Hotel du Palais Royal join the Lush Collection.

We are so pleased to announce the reunion with an old friend and legend in the industry and two of Paris' most stylish and successful hotels. Many of you know Ms. Severine Greault for the stellar job she has done overseeing sales and marketing her two superior hotels the Hotel Grand Powers and the Grand Hotel du Palais Royal. These are two properties I am very familiar with from having worked with Severine in the past. They are both the best, in terms of locations, Parisian luxury, and service the seasoned teams provide. Every client that stays at the Hotel Grand Powers is amazed at the true value for the exceptional location steps from iconic Paris landmarks and shop, the spacious rooms and suites, and the level of five-star service this boutique hotel provides. The Grand Hotel du Palais has been a hit from the day it opened in the 1st Arrondissement, neighbor to Le Louvre and has recently been renovated and new suites were created by combining 2 rooms. For those "Emily" fans, step outside the door and you find yourself on the set of this hit show!

Introducing DEOS from Myconian Collection

Opening May 10, 2024

We are proud to announce the opening of the 12th member of the Myconian Collection in Mykonos simply called DEOS (pronounced Theos) by Myconian. Deos is a term in Greek that means in awe, a feeling of reverence of a god or divine being. The site where this new haven is built provokes this very special sense with its magnificent position on the hillside overlooking the blues of the Aegean Sea and other islands including Delos, where civilization began. Words do not describe the intangible feeling.

Beginning May 10, the newly crafted must-see resort will bring awe to those who visit. With its hillside location, Just a 5-minute walk down the newly stone paved path to Chora, a.k.a. Mykonos, Town, the panoramic views to the horizon exude senses of escape, luxury, exclusivity. Sunsets and starry nights on the deck are without equal. The immersion in nature is enhanced by the energies of water, natural stone and indigenous landscaping which are harmonized by a contemporary Cycladic architecture. Connecting inner and outer spaces in every sense of the term, Deos invites guests to transformative experience, curated with a passion for mindful hospitality and all that is authentic about Mykonos.
